

Pittsburgh Chinese School 2009 Summer Camp Rules

The PCS Summer Camp policy governing student behavior is based on two principles – respect and safety. PCS expects mutual respect, civility, as well as orderly and safe conduct among all individuals on Summer Camp premise or at a Summer Camp event. In order to ensure a proper activity environment, PCS requires students to respect themselves and the rights of all other chaperons and students, to exhibit self-control, and to show courtesies to all the students at Summer Camp. Disciplinary actions may be taken against any student guilty of gross disobedience or not abiding by the following Summer Camp rules.

Parents

1. Parents will be held legally responsible and agree to release the PCS organization, the Board Members and staff for their children’s injury during Summer Camp period.
2. Parents agree to pay any fees, costs or damages associated with their children’s actions while on Summer Camp properties.
3. Parents have the rights to apply for a Summer Camp chaperon with the approval of their school.
4. Parents should educate the children before sending the children to Summer Camp.

Students

1. Respect your teachers, members, team members and all the other students from different schools.
2. Always follow the instructions.
3. No verbal or physical fighting during Summer Camp period.
4. No weapons, controlled substances or hazardous materials are permitted in summer Camp.
5. Always report to chaperon and obtain approval before a student leaving Summer Camp.
6. No inappropriate or disruptive behaviors that interfere with activities and events at Summer Camp.
7. Obey directives from Summer Camp staff members and/or rules and regulations.
8. Report to chaperons immediately if an injury or damage occurs.

Additional rules may be added to this documentation based upon summer camp situation.

----- Liability Waiver -----

We grant Pittsburgh Chinese School, hereinafter called PCS, the power to authorize medical treatment or medical procedures, at my sole cost and expense, in an emergency situation to aid me in connection with summer camp organized and/or sponsored by PCS. In further consideration of the services and instruction provided, I hereby release PCS, its directors, officers, teachers and volunteers from any and all claims or liabilities which may result from participation in the summer camp organized and/or sponsored by PCS including but not limited to those arising as a result of negligence. I have read all the summer camp policies and rules. I agree to adhere to and accept all the summer camp policies and rules, and understand they are subject to changes.
